

Unlock The Power Of Your Team

When to use an outside facilitator...

A good facilitator can add great value when you want to:

1. plan – strategize and organize what you need to do
2. generate creative ideas and foster innovation
3. energize or renew commitment of a group to teamwork
4. discuss difficult issues – so everyone has input
5. decide – come to an agreement everyone can support
6. analyze and prioritize large amounts of data efficiently
7. start a new team with good working relationships
8. accelerate the integration of a new leader
9. handle a period of change and transition effectively
10. exchange information across companies
